

The Thrill of The Grill

by Jennaye Derge

Perhaps the second-favorite summer pastime in Durango – after recreating in the outdoors – is barbecuing in them. And participants in last weekend's Men Who Grill certainly didn't let a little rain deter them from this great Durango pastime. Beef, pork, chicken, corn and just about anything else you can kiss with fire to create a culinary miracle showed up at this year's 12th annual event. Fortunately, diehard grillers and eaters alike soldiered on through intermittent showers at Buckley Park, making for another successful and tasty fundraiser for the Women's Resource Center.

Not just for the men, The "Grouple Grillers," from The Wells Group, show off the feminine side of grilling.

Sizzlin' hot jalapeño poppers being prepared by Coldwell Banker.

What's a BBQ without a little luau?

Ricky Barron serves up smiles and juicy Honeyville-sauced meatballs.