

The ski boot dance contest under blue bird skies Saturday afternoon.

Happy 75th, Wolf Creek!

by Jennaye Derge

Three quarters of a century ago, Wolf Creek Ski Area opened its doors to ski love'n, powder hug'n, hill cutt'n, outdoor jump'n enthusiasts. Seventy-five years later, the ski area has turned into a ski and snowboarding mecca for the Four Corners area. Beautiful terrain, great snow and a down-home feel. Could one ask for more? Perhaps throw in a ski boot stomp'n dance contest and there you go, this might just be ski bum heaven.

Sean Healen of the Sean Healen Band gives the ski boot stompers something to stomp to.

Valerie Green dances Saturday afternoon away.

Pagosa Springs resident and longtime WolfCreek skier Jeff Greer shows up in his 75th anniversary best.
